Places of Interest:

Shukkeien Garden (縮景園), 15-min. walk or 5 min. by bus from Hiroshima Sta., was originally designed in 1620 by Nagaakira Asano, a feudal lord ruling this district. Later emerging in its present form, the garden covers an area of 4 ha. and is registered as a Scenic Place. It is situated on Kyobashi River, from which water is drawn to create streams and ponds within its enclosure. The islets and bridges, the swimming carp and the surrounding woods combine to lend a special beauty to the garden. Open: 9:00 – 18:00 (Apr. – Sept., no entrance after 17:30), 9:00 – 17:00 (Oct. – Mar., no entrance after 16:30). Admission: ¥250. Closed Dec. 29–Jan. 3.

Hiroshima Prefectural Art Museum (広島県立美術館) was opened in 1968. This urban style art museum is located in the center of Hiroshima City, adjacent to the lush green Shukkeien Park. Open: 9:00 – 17:00 (Sat.: 9:00–19:00); enter 30min. before closing time. Closed: Mondays (except for holidays and days exchanged for holiday), Dec. 28 – Jan. 4. Admission for permanent exhibition: ¥500. Tel. (082)221-6246.

Hiroshima Castle (広島城), also called "Rijo" (Carp Castle), 10 min. by bus or by streetcar from Hiroshima Station, was completed in 1589 by Mori Terumoto, a feudal lord. It served as the residence of the Asano family for more than 250 years until the Meiji Restoration of 1868. The interior of the five-story donjon, reconstructed in its original style, has been used as a local museum, but the castle and its precincts now serve as a public park. From the top, visitors can obtain a view of Hiroshima Harbor and Miyajima Island on Hiroshima Bay as well as the panorama of the whole city. Open: 9:00 – 17:30 (Apr. – Sep.), 9:00 – 16:30 (Oct. – Mar.). Admission: ¥320. Closed: Dec. 29 – Jan. 2. Last admission is 30min. before closing time.

Peace Memorial Park (平和記念公園), 15 min. by streetcar or by bus from Hiroshima Sta., or 15-min. walk from Hiroshima Castle, was laid out after the Pacific War at the northernmost corner of the delta separating the affluence of the Ota River into two additional branches—the Motoyasu and Honkawa Rivers. The park includes the modern Peace Memorial Museum (East & West Bldg.), Memorial Cenotaph for A-Bomb Victims and the Hiroshima International Peace and Culture Hall. Peace

Memorial Museum is open 9:00 – 18:00 (Apr. – Jul.) & 8:30 – 18:00 (Aug 16 – Nov., no entrance after 17:30), 9:00 – 17:00 (Dec. – Mar., no entrance after 16:30). Open 8:30 – 19:00 between Aug. 1 – Aug. 15. Closed: Dec. 29 – Jan. 2. Admission: ¥50. Tel. (082)241-4004. Rental audio guide is available in 17 languages. ¥300.

Atomic Bomb Dome (原爆ドーム), 15 min. by bus or streetcar from Hiroshima Sta., stands completely gutted. The concrete section was burnt and even melted, leaving the skeletal steel frame exposed against the sky. The dome is situated at Otemachi near the eastern edge of Aioi Bridge, which was approximately the epicenter of the atomic explosion of August 6, 1945. It is the only atomic-bombed building in the city that has been permitted to stand. A-bomb Dome was registered as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in December 1996.

Memorial Cenotaph for A-Bomb Victims (原爆死没者慰霊碑): Under the huge vault, shaped like the figurine clay saddles found in ancient tombs, a stone chest has been placed containing the roll of those killed by the atomic bomb. On the front of the chest is an epitaph inscribed in Japanese, which means "Repose ye in peace, for the error shall not be repeated."

Hiroshima Museum of Art (ひろしま美術館), mainly exhibits European modern art including Impressionism from the beginning of the 19th century to the present day. Open: 9:00–17:00. (enter before 16:30) Closed: Dec. 29 – Jan. 2. Admission: ¥1,000.

Hijiyama Park (比治山公園), 15 min. by streetcar from Hiroshima Sta., forms a small hill situated in the eastern part of the city. A drive leads to the summit, and from the southern crown, the visitor can obtain a fine view of most of the city, including Peace Boulevard. The hillside is covered with multitudes of cherry trees, making it a popular place in the city for the viewing of cherry blossoms.

Hiroshima City Museum of Contemporary Art (広島市現代美術館), located in the compound of Hijiyama Park which is 15 min. by streetcar from Hiroshima Sta. The museum displays contemporary art works created after World War II. Open: 10:00 – 17:00. Closed: Mon. & Dec. 29 – Jan. 3. Admission: ¥320.

Asa Zoological Park (安佐動物公園), 50 min. by bus from JR Hiroshima Sta. or 20 min. by JR Kabe Line from Hiroshima Sta. to Omachi Sta. and 6 min. by Astram Line to Kamiyasu Sta., or 21 min. by Astram Line from Kencho-mae Sta. under Hiroshima

Bus Center to Kamiyasu Sta., then 10 min. by bus, is home to nearly 1,100 wild animals mostly from Africa in its compound of 256,000 sq.m surrounded by low mountains. The animals are not confined to standard-type cages. Open: 9:00 – 16:30 (No entrance after 16:00). Closed: Thur. (When Thur. falls on a national holiday, it will be closed on the previous day.) and Dec. 29 – Jan. 1. Admission: ¥440.

Other Places to Visit in the Vicinity:

Kintai Bridge (錦帯橋), 15 min. by bus from Iwakuni Sta., was originally constructed in 1673 by Hiroyoshi Kikkawa, a feudal lord of the district, for the purpose of protecting the residents from flooding by Nishiki River. The bridge is 193 m long, 5 m wide and 12 m above the water at the highest point. To erect the bridge, no nails were used at all; instead, some clamps and wires were employed as fasteners. During the three months from June to August, demonstrations of cormorant fishing are held under the bridge. Reconstruction work is going on until 2004, but the bridge can be walked across using partly the alternative passage. Bridge toll: ¥220.

Sandankyo (三段峡), a gorge designated as an "Outstanding Scenic Place," is situated on the upper reaches of Ota River, 73 km northwest of Hiroshima. Noted for its scenic beauty, created by the fresh verdure and natural colors in season and a number of fine waterfalls and rapid streams, the gorge can be reached by bus in 2 hrs. from Hiroshima Bus Center. It can be reached in 2 hrs. 10 min. via JR Sanyo Honsen Line and Kabe Line to Sandankyo Sta. (63.2 km), the terminal of Kabe Line. The gorge extends for 16 km and must be traversed on foot. Microbus service to Deaibashi is available (around Apr. 20–Nov. 20). Sandankyo is the best place for fall hiking when the leaves turn red. (The area opens from Apr. to the end of Nov. but is closed the rest of the year.)

Yuki Spa (湯来温泉), 1 hr. 32 min. by bus from Hiroshima Bus Center, is a quiet hot spring resort situated in the valley of Minochi River to the west of Hiroshima. In summer, the croaking of frogs and flashing of fireflies add to the attraction of the place. With Yunoyama Spa in the neighborhood, the district is popular with hikers. To the southwest of Yuki Spa lies Iwakura Spa, 1 hr. 24 min. by bus from Hiroshima Bus Center.

MIYAJIMA

Miyajima (宮島), literally Shrine Island, a popular name for Itsukushima Shrine, has long been revered as a sacred island because of Itsukushima Shrine founded there in 593 A.D. which is dedicated to the maritime guardian goddesses. The island, about 31 km in circumference, is easily accessible by ferryboat in 10 min. from Miyajimaguchi Sta., which is reached in 30 min. by JR Sanyo Main Line from Hiroshima Sta. Miyajima, noted for its magnificent landscape, including the shrine, is an ideal summer resort, replete with excellent swimming beaches and many pleasant trails for strolling. It is also noted for its cherry blossoms as well as for its autumnal tints. The lighting of the Shrine makes the opposite shore beautiful till 23:00.

Places of Interest:

Itsukushima Shrine (厳島神社), 10-min. walk from the pier, presently consists of the Main Shrine and several subsidiary shrines and buildings—all connected by wide corridors or galleries. These stretch above the sea on both sides of the shrine so that when the tide comes in, the whole edifice seems to be floating. The Main Shrine, Heiden (Offering Hall), Haiden (Hall of Worship), Haraiden (Purification Hall) and the corridors have been designated as National Treasures. Along the corridor in front of the shrines are exhibited the utensils and sacred vessels used in Shinto worship. Open: 6:30 – 17:00 (6:30 – 18:00, Mar. 1 – Oct. 14). Admission: ¥300.

Mt. Misen (弥山), alt. 530 m, is the highest peak on the island. The summit can be reached in 15 min. by 1.7 km-ropeway (¥1,700 for a round trip) to Shishiwa Sta. from Momijidani Park behind the shrine plus a 20-min. short hike. The primeval forest here is preserved as a natural monument. A splendid view is afforded of Hiroshima City, the nearby mountains and the Inland Sea with its innumerable islets.

Annual Events:

Kangen-sai (管絃祭) (Orchestra Festival) is the largest annual festival held on the day of Jun. 17 by the lunar calendar at Itsukushima Shrine, when three stately barges bearing a portable shrine as well as priests and musicians cross the bay along with other gaily decorated boats joining the colorful procession.
